

GLOSSARIO: A list of geographical features and their corresponding symbols in Spanish and English.

HYDROGRAPHIC DATUM and DATUM HIDROGRÁFICO: Technical information regarding the map's datum and water levels.

LEGEND: A comprehensive list of symbols used on the map, categorized by population, roads, railroads, boundaries, and other features.

SÍMBOLOS CONVENCIONALES: A list of conventional symbols and their meanings in Spanish, including elevation points and drainage features.

NOTES: A section containing various notes and instructions regarding the map's use, including coordinate conversion and scale information.

CONVERSION GRAPH: A graphical tool for converting between meters and feet, with a scale from 0 to 300 meters.

ELEVATIONS IN METERS: A section detailing contour intervals, grid convergence, and other technical specifications for the map's elevation data.

BOUNDARIES LÍMITES and ADJOINING SHEETS: Information regarding the map's boundaries and its relationship to adjacent sheets.

SLOPE GUIDE: A graphical tool for determining slope percentages and degrees, with a scale from 0% to 100%.

ELEVATION GUIDE: A graphical tool for determining elevation points and contours, with a scale from 0 to 300 meters.